June 2007 Honor Your Father

What to give dad for Father's Day? That is the question, isn't it? Robyn Spizman suggests that we should not ask him what he wants, instead say, "Dad, would you rather have clothing, a new watch or a camera?" If that doesn't get a response, try this: "Dad, what's the worst gift you've ever been given?" You are sure to get an earful about what he doesn't want. If you don't get any ideas from what he says, then offer him your heartfelt words of appreciation for all that he means to you and let him see the big smile on your face.

"Regardless of what you give your father," says Robyn Spizman, "be sure to give him a great big hug on Father's Day and tell him you love him. That's still the best gift of all."

AN ON AIR PRAYER

“Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask for your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, “Woe to those who call evil good,” but that is exactly what we have done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reserved our values. We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery. We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare. We have killed our unborn and called it choice. We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable. We have neglected to discipline our children and called it self esteem. We have abused power and called it politics. We have coveted our neighbor’s possession and called ambition. We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression. We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.

Search us, Oh God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and Set us free. Amen!”

With the Lord’s help, may this prayer sweep over our nation and wholeheartedly become our desire so that we again can be called “One nation under God.”

If possible, please pass this prayer on to your friends. “If you don’t stand for something, you will fall for everything.”

Dave
