THE SOUL LOVER

Prolific hymn writer Charles Wesley wrote the moving song “Jesus, Lover of My Soul” in 1739. According to one story, Wesley penned the lyrics after surviving a raging storm at sea. A frightened bird apparently flew into Wesley’s window during the uproar, seeking safety in the folds of Wesley’s coat.

The first stanza is as follows:

Jesus, lover of my soul,
let me to thy bosom fly,
while the nearer waters roll,
while the tempest still is high,
Hide me, O my Savior,
hide, till the storm of life is past;
safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.

This brings to mind the frightened disciples in Matthew 8:23-27. Pummeled with wind and waves, they feared drowning and called to Jesus to save them.

We, too, can take refuge in our Savior during life’s storms, knowing we have a safe haven and a sure destination.

I Wonder

The Nazis came first for the Communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist," said Pastor Martin Niemoeller. He was a former U-boat commander who had once briefly supported the Nazis but eventually spent four years in Dachau prison. "Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up because I was a Protestant. "Then they came for me, and by that time there was no one left to speak up."

This article makes me think that perhaps I haven't spoken up when others are deriding my faith. Perhaps I too share the blame for the present persecution of Christians in the world.
